TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE.

By Appointment.

The Parade of West Cowes, though of no great length, is one of the most fashionable promenades in England. It is laid out with numerous seats and a bandstand and is bordered with a most convenient stone balustrade, forming an ideal place for onlookers of the yacht racing. At one point is the club house of the Royal Yacht Squadron, the headquarters of the famous club, from which is conducted the famous Regatta.
